FIVE CCHA PLAYERS NAMED REEBOK ALL-AMERICANS

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich. – Five players from four different Central Collegiate Hockey Association teams have been named 2009-010 Reebok Division I Hockey All-Americans. One was selected to the West First Team and four to the West Second Team.

Northern Michigan was the only team to feature two honorees. Junior forward Mark Olver and junior defenseman Erik Gustafsson. Olver, a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award and CCHA scoring champion, was named to the first team. Gustafsson, who was named the CCHA's Best Offensive Defenseman, was selected to the second team for the second-consecutive season.

Gustafsson was joined on the second-team of blueliners by Michigan State junior Jeff Petry. Miami sophomore goaltender and the RBC Financial Group CCHA Player of the Year Cody Reichard and Ohio State sophomore forward Zac Dalpe were also selected to the second team.

In its' 39-year history, the CCHA has produced 86 First Team All-Americans and 83 Second Team All-Americans for a total of 169 honorees.

The Reebok All-America Ice Hockey Teams are sponsored by Reebok, an international leader in hockey equipment, and chosen by members of the American Hockey Coaches Association.
